

Penn Square Apartments

Providing Exceptional accommodations

1005 West Fourth Street

Circa 1869, The Cochran-Lyon House was once home to the wealthiest woman in the world, Annie Weightman-Walker-Penfield. The "Cochran - Lyon" house is one of the finest examples of Victorian architecture in the country. All apartments are furnished and include off street parking and utilities. Located on over 1 acre, across the street from Penn College, Cochran - Lyon house is the gem of "Millionaires Row." Some private rooms are available for parties and special events.

