

Penn Square Apartments

Providing Exceptional accommodations

829 West Fourth Street

Circa 1910, the Henry Parsons House is in the heart of the Millionaire's Row Historic District. This Queen Anne style house is situated among the trees across the street from Park Place, a restored 1860's railroad hotel. A law firm occupies the first floor. The second and third floor apartments are furnished and have private laundry facilities. The building is three blocks from Penn College. Assigned off- street parking is provided.

