

Penn Square Apartments

Providing Exceptional accommodations

912 West Fourth Street

Circa 1907, the Foresman House is a Colonial Revival style mansion with several apartments. The foyer greets residents and visitors as they enter off the magnificent wrap around porch. The house is equipped with a one of the only original working elevators in the Millionaires Row National Historic District. The property is just two blocks from Penn College. Off street parking is provided

